AT HYDERABAD

TUESDAY, THE TWENTYSIXTH DAY OF DECEMBER
TWO THOUNSAND AND SIX

THE HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE D.S.R. VARMA
And
THE HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE P.SWAROOP REDDY

WRIT PETITION NO. 25093 OF 2006

Between:

Smt. Gantla Siva Parvathi

Petitioner

AND

The Station House Officer,
Kamepalli Police Station,
Kamepalli, Khammam District and others

Respondents

ORAL ORDER:
(Per the Hon'ble Sri Justice P.Swaroop Reddy)

This writ petition is taken up on the basis of a complaint lodged by one Smt. Gantla Siva Parvathi wife of G.Rambabu, who is working as Police Constable, alleging that on 31.3.2006, one Md. Ali, resident of Dornakal village, Warangal District, kidnapped her daughter by name Ms. Radhika, in the name of love. It is further stated that though she gave complaint, the police are not taking proper action. It is also stated that the love letters and photographs of the girl are being shown to one and all, causing embarrassment to the family. She, ultimately, requests to direct the concerned to trace out the girl.

In response to the notices issued by this court, the Inspector of Police, Yellandu Circle filed counter affidavit stating that on the complaint lodged by the petitioner herein, a case in Cr. No. 34 of 2006 for the offences under Sec. 365, 323, 346 r/w 34 IPC was registered and is being investigated and they are taking all steps to trace out the missing girl by name Ms. Radhika.

As the police are taking appropriate steps and the case is still under investigation, we feel nothing can be done except directing the police to expedite the investigation, in an acceptable and decent manner viz., without disclosing the love letters to the public, as part of investigation.

With this direction, the writ petition is disposed of. No order as to cost.
